FORWORD

The "HAPPENINGS IN OKOLONA AND ANTOINE TOWNSHIP" is taken from the SOUTHERN STANDARD and the GURDON TIMES. The local correspondants were primarely Mrs. GEORGE W. GARRETT in the STANDARD, and Mrs. LOUELLA RILEY SPENCER in the GURDON TIMES, with the sisters, RUBY and ELWEIS FAIR taking over after Mrs. SPENCER left.

Some of the names are spelled in various ways, such as ORSBURN, OSBORN and ORSBORNE: WALLIS and WALLICE; CARGILE and CARGLE, and others. Most of these spellings have been retained in this book.

It is hoped that these clippings will in part replace the lost files of the OKOLONA MESSENGER, and will supply a portion of the news and activities of the Okolona area that would otherwise be difficult to locate.

A Special thanks to Ms. ESTELLE IVY, Assistant Librarian, Okolona Carnegie Library, Okolona, Mississippi, for the material in the Introduction in Volume I, on Chickasaw County, and the City of Okolona, Mississippi, and to Mrs. VELMA SEALE for proofreading and correcting the many mistakes in transcribing the clippings, and to the CLARK COUNTY HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION for making them available for individual research.

NEWS OF OKOLONA AND ANTOINE TOWNSHIP

By Mrs. L.R. SPENCER

School opened Monday morning with teachers and students in their places and the schedule moved off quietly with most every body glad to be back again, ready for work after the gala days.

Mrs. E.Y. HILL and children spent the Christmas holidays with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J.W. BERRY, at Gurdon. She was accompanied home Sunday by her brother, ALAN BERRY, who will remain with her until Mr. HILL's return from a hospital in Little Rock.

A wedding that will be of interest to readers of this column was that of Miss EVELYN RILEY, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. GUS RILEY, and LOUIS S. WEBER of Phoenix, Ariz. which took place Christmas Eve at the home of Mr. and Mrs. COX at Benton, with the Rev. Mr. LEE, pastor of the Benton Methodist Church officiating. Miss LOUISE REICHARDT and GUS LORENZ of Little Rock, were the only attendants. The bride is a popular Okolona girl, born and reared here, and graduated from the high school last year. Mr. WEBER is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R.O. WEBER of Little Rock. The bridal pair left Okolona Saturday morning by motor for Phoenix where the groom is connected with the International Building and Loan Association. They are followed by the good wishes of many friends.

Miss DIXIE DEE GATES was a week end guest of Miss ISABELLE ROWE, near Arkadelphia.

Mrs. EMMA SHACKELFORD celebrated Christmas Day with a family dinner which was enjoyed by her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. There were present, Mr. and Mrs. JOHN DICKEY and daughter, Miss KATHERINE, of Graysonia; Mrs. ERIC BIGHAM of Bartlett, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. GUY RILEY and son, FORD; Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE REID and daughter, MEREDITH JOE; Mr. and Mrs. LEWIS RILEY and children, Misses MATTIE and ELIZABETH SHACKELFORD. E.Y. HILL, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. M.O. HILL and his brother, CHARLES HILL, went to Little Rock Tuesday and entered Trinity hospital for treatment for blood poisoning. A week ago Mr. Hill ran into a wire and scratched his shin. Little thought was given the slight wound until several days later symptoms of blood poisoning developed. Reports from the hospital indicate that the patient is now out of danger and will have to remain but a few days longer at the hospital.

R.C. PHELPS came in from Oklahoma and spent the holidays with his family here. Mr. and Mrs. E.A. WATSON had as their Christmas guests their children and grandchildren. These were Dr. and Mrs. H.A. WATSON and children, of Little Rock, Mr. and Mrs. SYDNEY WATSON of Camden, and Mr. and Mrs. J.L. WATSON and son, J.L. Jr. of Scott.

MISSING MAN IS NOT Found
No Trace Is Yet Found of Alex Rosston,
45-year old Farm laborer

Although the sheriff's forces have been doing everything possible to unearth the mystery of the disappearance of ALEX ROSSTON, Okolona citizen, who left home Christmas Eve and has not since been seen.

Many clues have been run down, but none of them have brought a solution.

ROSSTON, who lived with his mother in Okolona, was a man of good reputation except for the fact that he occasionally indulged to excess in liquor, at which times he became rather irresponsible. He was a good work-man and the money he had with him was wages received for work on a new school building.

ROSSTON was last seen in the Smyrna community. So. Std. 1-8-1931

HAPPENINGS

Interest in this community centers around the search for ALEX ("SHUG") ROYSTON who disappeared from his home Christmas Eve and has not since been seen. "SHUG" as he was known by everyone in this section left home early in the afternoon of Christmas Eve, telling his mother he would return in time for supper. He did not return and when nothing was heard from him the next day or the next inquiries were made and search commenced. Developments have proved that he was seen in the Smyrna neighborhood in a state of intoxication late that evening and that he stated to one who talked with him that he was going home. Conflicting rumors have been afloat but it is believed that the man was murdered and his body thrown into the Antoine river. Acting on this theory searching parties have dragged the river, but so far the body has not been recovered. "SHUG" worked as water carrier and general "roust-about" for the crew that worked on the new high school building and was known to have saved his wages. He is supposed to have had some $50.00 or $60.00 on his person at the time of his disappearance. He was a bachelor about 45 years of age and lived with his widowed mother. His disappearance has overshadowed bank failures and all other troubles and the entire public is aroused.

Considerable excitement was caused Saturday evening about 7 o'clock when soot in the chimney of the Dr. HUGHES' home caught fire and caused flames to leap several feet above the chimney. A large crowd gathered quickly and a "bucket brigade" in the yard passed water up to men on the roof who soon extinguished the flames.

The SHADY GROVE SCHOOL, 11 miles east of Okolona, was moved Monday morning to the main school building in Okolona. This was a ward school in the consolidated system and consisted of eight grades. The pupils will be transported by bus. The teachers, Mr. and Mrs. LEE STARNES, will move to town. Mr. STARNES will become a member of the high school faculty and Mrs. STARNES will teach second grade.

Mrs. ROY ORSBURN and little daughter returned last Tuesday from Holene, New Mexico where they had spent the past two months visiting relatives. Mrs. ORSBURN reports wheat crop prospects in that section, where several former Okolona families reside, to be quite promising. Mr. and Mrs. ORSBURN and little daughter drove to Arkadelphia Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. FOREST RUSSELL.

Several changes have been made in the community during the past week. R.H. HARRIS of Burtzell purchased the LEE ORSBURN farm south of Okolona and his son, LEONARD, with Mrs. LEONARD and young son, GARWIN, moved into the residence on the farm. Mr. and Mrs. DON STEWART moved from town in their country home when the HARRIS's moved out. Mr. and Mrs. TOM KILLINGSWORTH moved from the CONWAY place, opposite the TRACY KILLINGSWORTH home, to the home they formerly occupied near the depot and Mr. and Mrs. LEWIS RILEY moved into the house they vacated.

Okolona was aroused at an early hour Friday morning by a fire alarm and in a short while the J.J. YOUNG home opposite the SHACKELFORD HOTEL was in ashes. The house, a large two story frame building, was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. ED TILLMAN and was used as a boarding house. A few pieces of furniture and some of the family clothing were saved. The furnishings were not insured but the house was insured for $2,500.00. The TILLMANS will probably move to their country home west of Okolona.

Mr. and Mrs. BOB SHACKELFORD and two sons of Ardmore, Oklahoma, left last Wednesday for their home after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. A.M. WEIR. They were accompanied as far as Hope by Mrs. J.T. WEIR who is attending the bedside of her sister, Mrs. JANES, who is ill at the home of Dr. DON SMITH.

NO TRACE OF OKOLONA MAN WHO DISAPPEARED DEC. 24

As yet no trace has been found of ALEX RALSTON, who mysteriously disappeared from his home at Okolona last Christmas Eve. Searching parties have been out almost continually since his disappearance and efforts will be continued to find the missing man.

There is no truth to a report that ALFRED STOCKTON and DOYLE HOWARD were arrested as suspects in connection with the disappearance and there is no evidence to indicate that they had anything to do with it.

Early Monday afternoon TRACY KILLINGSWORTH and GUS ROSS found the body of ALEX ROSSTON, Okolona man who has been missing since Christmas Eve, the last time he was seen alive. The discovery was made in the pasture of Mr. KILLINGSWORTH, about a mile northeast of Okolona on the Okolona and Arkadelphia highway. the body was in a half reclining position against a tree, and there were slight scratches on his face. There were about $22 in his pocket, which dispels the theory that he was murdered and robbed, and the opinion is that he died from exposure, as the day he left home was cold and raw, and he was intoxicated.

The deceased was a bachelor, and lived with his mother, a Mrs. SHUGART. On the afternoon of December 24th, he left home telling his mother he would be back for supper. when he did not return that night a search was begun that engaged the officers of the county, and a large number of private citizens. All streams in the vicinity were dragged, and the search had about ceased when the body was found Monday.

AN OKOLONA DRUG STORE BROKEN INTO

A report comes from Okolona that one night last week the TILLMAN DRUG STORE at Okolona was broken into. Early one morning Deputy McMASTER discovered the door partly open and several cases of varnish outside. Miss TILLMAN, owner, says that so far she has missed only a small amount of goods. Evidently the intruders were frightened away before the cans could be disposed of.

NEWS OF OKOLONA

Mesdames S.T. COVINGTON, J.R. ALFORD, J.J. SHACKELFORD and L.R. SPENCER visited relatives and friends in Gurdon Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. BERT SHACKELFORD and children of Gurdon were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE SHACKELFORD and Mr. and Mrs. E.D. MCGOWAN.

Funeral and burial services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Weir cemetery for JACK MORRIS who died suddenly of heart failure Tuesday at his home at Arkadelphia. Mr. MORRIS was 58 years old, was born and reared in Clark county and was for years a resident of Okolona. He is survived by three sons, an aged mother, three sisters and five brothers. The Rev. S.B. MANN had charge of the services which were well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. J.H. BARNARD and son, HAROLD, of Bandon, Texas, were here Wednesday in attendance at the funeral of JACK MORRIS. Mrs. BARNARD was a sister of Mr. MORRIS. Other out of town attendants were J.W. BARNARD of Little Rock, Mrs. MARVIN WRIGHT of Gurdon, Mrs. LEO CHEEK and Mrs. RICE of Delight, Mrs. GUS POWELL, TOBE RAY, and Mrs. WILL STEELE of Arkadelphia and Mr. and Mrs. ED OSBORNE of Hope.

GUS HALE has returned from a visit of two weeks with relatives at Texarkana.

Mr. and Mrs. S.T. COVINGTON and family were week end visitors at Murfreesboro and with relatives at Dierks.

Mrs. J.J. SHACKELFORD was a guest last Tuesday of Mr. CHARLES HILL at Arkadelphia.

For the second time in one month Okolona has been visited with fire and one of the best residences in town destroyed. The brick bungalow home of Mr. and Mrs. LEE ORSBURN burned at an early hour last Thursday morning. It is thought that the fire originated from a defective flue. Household goods in three rooms were saved but furniture in rooms in the rear and the kitchen and food supplies were an entire loss, which both on house and contents was partially covered by insurance. The ORSBURN family ask that we express their thanks and appreciation of the sympathy and assistance accorded them by the people of the town.

BOYD KELLY of Delight, brother of Supt. O.J. KELLY, was an Okolona visitor Monday.

A wedding that came as a surprise to friends here was that of Miss MARY BLAKLEY of Delight and J.H. THRASHER of Okolona who were married at the home of the bride's father, E.F. BLAKLEY, Thursday afternoon, Jan. 29th. Only a few of the bride's close friends witnessed the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. E.L. DUREN, pastor of the Baptist Church at Delight. The groom has lived in and around Okolona most of his life. He became connected with business interests here in 1918 and has many friends here who extend felicitations. The couple are for the present at the PHELPS CAMP near here.

GUS FAIR, student at Henderson State College, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. JAMES FAIR.

Little VERA DEE KECK who has been dangerously ill from infection of a blister due to chicken pox, is still confined to her bed, though her condition is somewhat improved.

The TILLMAN DRUG STORE was entered by thieves Wednesday night or early Thursday morning. They evidently made a hasty exit, leaving the doors open and several buckets of paint standing on the outside. Miss TILLMAN has not discovered any loss except some tobacco and cigarettes. A few dollars in silver in the money drawer was unmolested. Very little of this sort of thing goes on here although the news papers tell us that petty thieving is general throughout the country.

EUELL DICKINSON formerly with the Merchants and Planters Bank at Pine Bluff arrived here the latter part of last week on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T.A. DICKINSON.

Mr. and Mrs. J.M. WITT moved last week to the TOM WINGFIELD cottage on the west side of town and Mr. and Mrs. LEE ORSBURN and family whose residence was burned that morning, moved into the house vacated by the WITTS.

Mr. and Mrs. G.A. BROWN, Mrs. J.W. BERRY, Miss BOBBIE RANDALL, TANNA WEE BROWN, HAROLD, JACK and EARL BERRY motored from Gurdon Sunday and were guests of Mr. and Mrs E.Y. HILL.

Our superintendent of schools, J.O. KELLY, has spent his week-ends in various ways, but the last week-end was the crowning one of his life. He took unto himself a wife--Miss GERTRUDE MANN, music teacher in the Okolona High School and a daughter of Rev. S.B. MANN, pastor of the Okolona Methodist Church. They were married in Arkadelphia, Saturday evening by the Rev. ARNOLD of Henderson State College. They then drove over to Hot Springs where they spent the night. Mrs. RICKETT, of Bauxite, a sister of the groom's entertained them at luncheon in her home Sunday. Judging from the remarks one hears, there never has been a wedding in Okolona that has made the entire town as happy. And, why not? They are "a-plus" young people who will always be a one hundred per cent asset to any community in which they reside and labor. If good wishes were dollars they would have fat purses the remainder of their lives.

On last Wednesday morning our town was made sad by the news of the death of Mrs. JIM WITT which occurred at the M.M. Hospital, Texarkana. The remains were buried at Mena Thursday, the funeral services being conducted by the Pentecostal church. Mrs. WITT would have been 48 years old the 14th of March. She joined the Pentecostal Church early in life, of which she remained a faithful member until she moved to Okolona several years ago when she united with the Methodist Church, there being no church of her denomination here. She was a consecrated Christian woman who will be greatly missed from our midst. She is survived by her husband and two children, T.H. WEBER and Mrs. IVY MAE LONG of Port Arthur, Texas. We extend our sympathy to the love ones.

On Monday evening a cantata, "THE MADCAPS," was given in the school auditorium, to a full house. It was one of the most vivid portrayals of the subject treated, that has been given by the school. By word, action and costumes, the march of the seasons was made so real one could almost feel the atmosphere change as spring, summer, autumn and winter followed one another, and we were made to rejoice that we live in a part of the world where there isn't a sameness the whole year through but that we live where the seasons come and go, each with its own peculiar joy and beauty. ### AIR CIRCUS AT GURDON SUNDAY

The American Legion Will Be In Charge of the Program and Exercises

On next Sunday, June 28th, the Gurdon post of the American Legion will stage their second annual air circus. Many novel stunts are being planned by the local Legioners in their eagerness to provide a good attraction for the crowds that promise to be there.

They have made arrangements for both the Hunter Airways and the Commandaire Flying service force who are to be on hand with many plans and to provide the audiences with many thrills.

Among the many novel stunts planned is a game of hare and hounds played by some local boy in an open car, being pursued from above by one or more planes who will endeavor to bomb him and thus put him out of the running.

All the Gurdon members of the post are being detailed for duty that day and plans are being made to handle the crowd in an orderly manner. Parking space will be handled by the Legion.

The co-operation of the State Highway Department is being asked in keeping highway No. 53 open to all traffic and avoiding any jams that day. It is expected that several highway patrolmen will be on duty in Gurdon that day.

The funds derived from the air circus will be added to the building fund already started by the local post to erect a community house in Gurdon, the need of which is readily admitted by everyone. So. Std. 6-28-1931

NEWS OF OKOLONA

Okolona is quiet this week, many citizens being camped at Davidson camp ground attending the meeting and others driving up during the day and for the evening service. All stores close at 6:30 and many cars make the trip each evening. The mammoth spring was reconstructed this year, the ground was thoroughly cleaned and everything possible done to make conditions pleasant for the campers. Rev. C.E. WHITTEN preaches two sermons each day and the program of gospel songs led by L.O. BAKER with piano accompaniment by Mrs. J.O. KELLY is entered into heartily by the choir and congregations alike.

HAPPENINGS IN OKOLOMA AND ANTOINE TOWNSHIP

There are approximately 100 cottages on the grounds with a total of 325 campers this year. The Sunday crowd was estimated at 1500. Officers of the meeting are the same as last year: B. The tree has averaged more than 20 bushels a year during the years Mr. CRAWLEY has owned the farm, he said, and its yield has paid most of the taxes. This year, however, Mr. CRAWLEY said, the tree probably would contribute little toward taxes because "taxes are all going up and prices have stopped going down--they's gone so far they can't go any farther." ### NEWS OF OKOLONA

Okolona was shocked and saddened Sunday morning at the news of the sudden death of Mrs. J.J. YOUNG. Three years ago Mr. and Mrs. YOUNG moved to Little Rock to be with their daughter, Miss VIOLA, now Mrs. DOWNY McDONALD, who entered the University of Arkansas Medical College. This spring they felt the call of the homeland and returned to build a cottage on the site where their former large home burned. They had occupied this new home little more than one month when Mrs. YOUNG was called to the home over there.

Mrs. YOUNG, the former Miss ADELE RICE, was born near Florence, Alabama, July 16, 1866 and with her parents, one brother and two sisters removed to Arkansas at the age of fourteen years. She was married to J.J. YOUNG, Jan. 18, 1887 in Okolona and with the exception of the three years in Little Rock they have lived here ever since. Six children were born to this union of whom four daughters survive - Mrs. ROY of Stephens, Mrs. W.B. ELLIOT of Camden, Mrs. J.E. COOPER of Crosett, and Mrs. DOWNY of Little Rock. Their son, Lieut. ROBERT YOUNG, was killed in France Oct. 30, 1918. The magnificent ROBERT YOUNG STADIUM at Hendrix College was built as a memorial to him, a former student. The husband, one sister, Mrs. ZENA LASSITER, and four grandchildren, JAMES FRANCIS and JACK SMITH, Misses MARGARET ADELE COOPER and VIDELLE ELLIOTT, also survive.

Funeral services were conducted from the Methodist Church at ten o'clock Monday evening by Rev. S.B. MANN, assisted by Rev. J.W. BERRY, Rev. WALSH, and Rev. J.E. COOPER, her son-in-law, who paid a most beautiful tribute to her life. Interment was in the Okolona cemetery.

She joined the Methodist Church at the age of nine years and lived a life of service ever afterward, service to her Master, her church, her home and family and her friends. Truly, she lived her life for others. Honorary pallbearers were: M.M. OSBURN, T.S. DICKERSON, GEO. ETHRIDGE, GUS FAIR, GEO. W. GARRETT, GEO. SHACKELFORD, Dr. F.A. HUGHES, Dr. JOHN ALFORD, M.O. HILL, ED HILL, CHARLES HILL, ARCH MCGILL, J.H. THRASHER and WILL GATES. Active pallbearers were: B.O. PHELPS, BERT WINGFIELD, ROME SHACKELFORD, GUS ROSS, BEN HILL and Dr. T.T. ROSS.

Mrs. YOUNG is gone but her memory will live in our hearts through the years. To her grief-stricken husband and daughters and sister we extend the loving sympathy of the community in which she lived and served and was loved for so many years. This presses the philosophy of her life:

"Help me to live from day to day
In such a self forgetful way
That ever when I kneel to pray
My prayer shall be for others.

Among those from out of town who attended the funeral of Mrs. YOUNG were: Mrs. J.S. THOMPSON, Mrs. S.A. THOMPSON, SAMUEL THOMPSON, Mrs. J.R. HAMMONDS, Miss MARY AGNES HAMMONDS. ### NEWS OF OKOLONA

The committee in charge of arrangements announce the OLD TIMERS SINGING for Sunday, July 3, at the usual place, the MINERAL SPRINGS CAMP GROUND, six miles northwest of Okolona.

This is an annual event that is looked forward to from year to year by the elderly people who have gathered at this historic spot and blended their voices in the songs of Zion for more than 40 years. Some of the old Christian Harmony song books are still in use and there are those who can "pitch" the songs by the use of the old time tuning fork. Songs of the present day with piano accompaniment will also be sung and the day will be filled with pleasures for young and old alike.

Bring a well-filled lunch basket and join the crowd that day and help sing away the gloom of depression and low priced cotton. Gardens are fine; fruit is ripening; the fence corners and roadsides are full of blackberries; chickens are just waiting to be fried in home made lard; and the wonderful mineral water is bubbling from the spring in as great profusion as when cotton was fifty cents a pound and you paid $12.50 for a barrel of flour. So "Come let us sing praise and thanksgiving that we are here to enjoy these blessings."

Plans are also under way for the annual camp meeting at Davidson's Camp Ground, nine miles northwest of Okolona. Leaders are at work on plans for making this meeting an old-time revival of religion based on the plans of the founders of the movement. ### NEWS OF OKOLONA

Camp meeting at the historic Davidson Camp Ground came to a close Sunday night and citizens of this and the many other communities represented there returned to their homes Monday morning.

Rev. S.B. MANN, pastor of the local church, preached two sermons daily and those who were privileged to hear him say he preached wonderfully, helpful, inspiring, spiritual sermons and caused his listeners to return for the purpose of listening again. Verily, this meeting was an old time revival of genuine religion.

The attendance was indeed unusual, there being present at the morning services each day between 600 and 800 persons and at the evening services from 1400 to 1600 persons.

The order and attention during the services were of the highest order and the same was true of the order on the grounds throughout the meeting, not one case of misdemeanor of any kind being reported to the authorities at any time. The very fine spirit of cordiality and hospitality was shown throughout the meeting.

From every standpoint the meeting was a success and will be remembered by those in attendance as one of the best on the beloved old camp ground, made sacred to many by the memory of Father and Mother and their participation in meetings of this same spirited type in days gone by.

Brother MANN reports 70 conversions and reclamations with 51 additions to the Methodist and several to both Baptist and Christian Churches.

~~~~~ W.C. HARE DEAD

W.C. HARE, died November 21 at his home near Okolona. He would have been 68 years old December 11. Mr. HARE joined the Methodist Church when a boy and after he grew to manhood he was a true Christian and a friend to mankind. Mr. HARE was always for the right in everything. He leaves a widow and three children and one great grandchild, one son, FOREST HARE of Antoine, two daughters, Mrs. JOHN MALCOM of Okolona and Mrs. BUD MORRIS of Gurdon, four brothers, TOM HARE of Okolona, JOE HARE of Antoine and LOVIN HARE of Boswell, Okla., two sisters, Mrs. E.M. OSBORN of Hope, and Mrs. S.B. HARDIN of Gurdon.

Mr. HARE was a kind husband and a loving father always with a word of cheer and never looking at the dark side of life. His health failed him, yet he never complained or murmured and more than once talked to the family about dying and always said his way was clear and bright and was only waiting for God to say when to go.

Just a few hours before he passed away he said that it would not be long until he would go. What a blessed assurance he left behind and what a wonderful life he lived while on the earth! Yes, he will be missed at home and in his community. We will greatly miss him but what earth loses Heaven gains.

May God bless the sad hearts and help those who are not ready to go to prepare for a home in Heaven

At two o'clock last Tuesday afternoon, twelve ladies met at the home of Mrs. REGINALD OSBORN for the purpose of bringing to life the Home Demonstration Club that did such good work under Miss ARNOLD and later, Miss BATES, but that passed out of existence after the county agents were withdrawn. It is hoped under the leadership and guidance of the new agent, Mrs. MILDRED C. WISE, the club will not only "come alive" again, but will function with greater enthusiasm and interest than ever before.

Mrs. Mildred C. Wise

The club meeting was called to order by Mrs. GRIER, who introduced Mrs. WISE. Immediately afterward, the election of officers was held with the following results: Mrs. JAMIE GRIER, president; Mrs. REGINALD OSBORN, vice-president; Mrs. B.O. PHELPS, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. GEO. W. GARRETT, reporter. The president made an earnest plea for increased interest and enthusiasm on the part of members. No name was decided upon, as some of the members felt that the old name "Home Demonstration Club" might be improved upon to the benefit of the club. It was decided that at the March meeting each member would answer roll call with the name she would like to have given to the club; so come to the next meeting armed with a name as powerful as you wish your club to be this year.

The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. WISE, who outlined a program for the year's work. In explaining the different phases of work possible to the club she stressed better gardens, better homes, better dairying, with its accompanying side line of cheese making for the home and poultry raising done scientifically and at the least expense. In this connection, she showed pictures of the brick brooder that has been used successfully by poultry raisers in different communities and is recommended by the government. At a later date a demonstration of this brooder will be given in the community.

Plans for making clothes for the family were discussed and a demonstration was given, showing many new ideas in home dress-making.

Also on the east side of town BERT WINGFIELD has a beautiful yard. Many poppies and rambling roses are in bloom. Bert is a great lover of flowers. He has planted poppies and roses by the side of his store.

As you travel west on the highway you will pass a home about ----mile from town. This is the home of Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE W. GARRETT. Their yard is full of all kinds of flowers perfectly arranged. A rambling rose, white and pink, cover the entire length of their fence on the west side, while on the east they have a beautiful lawn with cherry trees set out over it. In every little nook one can see cunning bird houses. Back of the house is one of the finest chicken houses and still farther back is a big chicken farm, with every modern convenience. Then in the center of the chicken farm is a large pond or pool filled with catfish, perch and a number of other kinds.

Many other improvements have been made in our town. Many people have painted, covered, papered, and remodeled their homes. Times 5-31-1934

FORMER OKOLONA RESIDENT WRITES OF HER TRAVELS

The following is a letter from a former Okolona resident and correspondent of The Gurdon Times. In a personal letter to the editor she states that she has had many requests to write old friends, hence this letter.

Los Angeles, July 20--Following a boy that follows the flag has kept me away from Arkansas for a few years. While at home last summer I did not get to see as many friends as I should have liked, nor have I been able to correspond with as many. So I am writing to you all, and extending greetings, through this column of the Gurdon Times.

I spent the winter at Riverside, to be near March Field where JOE is stationed. Riverside is a beautiful inland town where life flows smoothly along quiet streets, wide shady lawns and indignified, stately houses but away from ocean breeze. So I have taken up temporary quarters in downtown Los Angeles, where all the day and half the night the din of traffic roars, but the ocean and the beaches are not far away.

AIMEE'S DAUGHTER IN ARKANSAS

Have you people by any chance, been entertaining AIMEE's daughter, ROBERTA SEMPLE? You would not know, of course, for she is travelling incognito. But she is headed for the Ozarks. Not imbued with religious zeal but, as she has announced to the world, merely intending to rub elbows with the hill billies and to gather from them material for magazine articles and for a fall radio program. She names Searcy as her "jumping off" place.

I MEET CELEBRITIES

I went a few days ago, to a morning book review to find out "What the World is Thinking" in terms of countries, politics, books and the theatre. But, to be entirely truthful, my attendance was prompted more by a desire to meet the two distinguished women who were the guests of honor for the occasion than for the information to be dispensed. We all have a healthy curiosity about celebrities. We like to meet the people whose names have become familiar to us through various lines of achievement.

One of these, Princess Dr. LING, is a woman in whom I have been interested since reading some years ago her book, "The Old Buddha." The princess was lady-in-waiting to the old Dowager Empress of China, and in this book gives an absorbing account of life in the Forbidden City. And later I followed her work in the Saturday Evening Post, and the women's magazines. The other woman was RUTH COMFORT MITCHELL, a name familiar to all fiction readers.

When these notables had been seated on the platform amidst a round of applause, Mrs. MITCHELL calmly took her knitting from a bag in her lap and set industeriously to work. I had observed on other occasions women knitting at public assemblies, but that was the first time I had seen an honor guest exercising that prerogative on a formal occasion.

I had not the least difficulty in fitting a name to the lady on the right. This might be accounted for in the nationality of the princess, but that fact could scarcely be noted from where I sat. Mrs. MITCHELL wore a pea green suit coat with long graceful lines and hat of same shade. When introduced by the chairman she laid aside her knitting and resumed her gloves before her short, humorous address.

HAPPENINGS IN OKOLONA AND ANTOINE TOWNSHIP

Princess Dr. LINGE would have seemed more interesting had she appeared in court dress, but wearing conventional American clothes she looked like the average well-bred woman. But on close-up she was characteristically Chinese. She has been married for more than a quarter of a century, to an American who she confided to us in her address "is the most wonderful man in the world." On meeting her I did not find her particularly responsive.

But Mrs. MITCHELL was spontaneous and delightful. When I told her that several years ago in a little Arkansas town one of her stories had helped me thru a seige of illness in my family, she seemed greatly pleased, and asked me the name of the story. "Was it "The White Stone?" I replied in the affirmative.

"I am so glad it was that one" she said, "It is my favorite of them all. You know it was based on that verse in Revelations. After all we have to go back to the Bible for inspiration. "Overcome is such a good word."

"Yes" I agreed, "and often such a difficult one."

"Thank you for telling me my book helped," she said, in parting, "It quite warmed the cookles of my heart."

I made my way to the tea-room, a glow at my own heart reflecting upon how much alike we all are and that celebrities are just folks.

ARKANSANS IN CALIFORNIA

Many Arkansas people will, doubtless, be coming to California this year to visit the exposition at San Diego. I Trust I shall be fortunate enough to meet some of them.

A surprising number of former Arkansas residents live in and around Los Angeles, and once in many moons some of us get together for lunch. Words like "she and they" and "don't you remember" are the chief topics of discussion.

Always sincerely yours,
LOUELLA R. SPENCER

In the days when the annual camp meeting was held at the Mineral Springs Camp Ground she was always there with her entire family and many there are who still speak of her gracious hospitality there and in her own home. Although the people of Okolona have been expecting the death of Miss NELLIE HARRIS, we were shocked when the news came Sunday. Miss HARRIS has been employed by the Bell Telephone Company in Little Rock for the past twenty years. She was a member of the Methodist Church here. Miss HARRIS was reared in Okolahoma. She is survived by her father R.K. HARRIS, three sisters, Mrs. W.J. CUNNINGHAM, Mrs. EREN WINGFORD of Dallas, and Mrs. RUBE SHACKELFORD of Okolona, three brothers, ERNEST HARRIS of Blissfield, Mich. and LEONARD and FRED HARRIS of Okolona. Miss HARRIS died at the home of her sister, Mrs. CUNNINGHAM, in Little Rock.

Rev. R.A. HIGHSMITH of Prescott was in town Friday evening.

Tuesday evening of each week is Union Choir practice of the Churches of Okolona.

On last Tuesday evening every one felt rather downcast as it was the last meeting of any kind Bro. L.E. WILSON and family were to attend in Okolona with him as pastor of the Methodist Church. Word had come just a few days before that he had been transferred to the pastorate of the church at Mineral Springs, near Nashville.

Soon after coming in Bro. and Sister WILSON noticed several out for their practice who were not in the habit of coming, but thought little of it. As the last song was sung Mrs. JAMIE GRIER emerged from a side door, loaded with packages, which she laid on a table in front of the pulpit, requesting Bro. WILSON and his lovely wife to come forward and occupy the front pew. Mrs. L.R. SPENCER, who has been a member of this church for a quarter of a century, presented the gifts to the pastor and his wife in her dignified way, mentioning Bro. WILSON's work with us for the past three years and one month. She mentioned the fact that being the only resident pastor, he had served not only the church, but the town, that he visited the sick, comforted the mourning, buried the dead, and married the lovers. Bro. WILSON responded with a touching speech of acceptance in which he expressed his own and his mate's love not only for the Methodist people, but for the other denominations of Okolona. An enjoyable social program of games followed, in which the entire audience participated and a prize contest was won by Mrs. CHAS. HILL. Later, doors were opened into one of the class rooms and refreshments of sandwiches and chocolate were served from a long table decorated with a miniature Christmas tree and lighted with candles. Many regrets were expressed for the unexpected departure of Bro. and Mrs. WILSON, and the church and community will not soon forget them and their services to us.

Mrs. ERRETT HARDIN gave a farewell party for JOE and CHARLES WILSON Monday evening. A handkerchief shower was given. After a few hours of entertainment, the doors to the dining room were opened. Miss ANNA LAURA HARDIN requested everyone to come and be seated. JOE and CHARLES were seated at the head of the table. The gifts were arranged in the center. Several of the young people spoke of their regrets of the machine is a hindrance as well as a help to us. It is our gain that the machine reduced hard physical labor, and numbers of hours that man has to work. It is possible for a man to produce more goods in a day. It increases the wages a man receives for his work, which on the other hand it is to our loss because some people have to do work that is monotonous and tiresome. It has taken away much of the pride which a man has in his craftsmanship, it has brought times when millions of men were unemployed and their families were in distress, it has speeded up our living until many of us do not take time for rest and quiet pleasure.

(First column unreadable)

....miles south of Okolona. Captain BONNER run a saw mill just east of Old Rome, after the Civil War. He cut and delivered the timbers that built the first wooden bridge across the little Missouri River for the Cairo and Fulton Railroad Co.

The next farm on up the river was the WELCH farm; they were from Georgia, too. About a mile further up the river was WILLIS BEARD from Mississippi with a few slaves. This farm was soon transferred to REECE HOWELL from Mississippi with a few slaves. He was BEARD's son-in-law. The farm was known afterward as the HOWELL farm.

The next farm was PETER LEATHERMAN an abolitionist from Massachusetts and my Great Grandfather. He was a great blacksmith and gunsmith for his day. He could make any spring in gun lock and temper it. He also ran a tan yard and a distillery, making mostly apple and peach brandy. They had their herds of hogs, sheep and cattle. They carded their wool and made it into cloth. I imagine I can hear that old loom pounding from morning to night sometimes now. One yard of cloth a day was good work, notwithstanding their slaves there was no busier place on the river than this little farm. Right here I spent my childhood days. I long to see the old hills once more.

Over east a few miles were the BUCHANANS from Mississippi with their fine fox and deer hounds. The next farm up the river was JOSHUA STEWART from Mississippi with a few slaves.

He was the first man I ever saw buried in honor as a Mason. I thought it a grand sight to see them go through their preamble and marching with badges and uniforms on. Imagine a little boy that never got to go very often, way back in the sticks where the owls hooted, the ravens croaked, the frogs chirp, the woodvine twineth and the tumble bugs hum their mournful songs. Never had seen a brick building, never had seen a railroad, never even dreamed of a fine paved highway lined with streaming machines called automobiles, never dreamed of the Radio where you can sit and listen to your president, foreign diplomats and kings talk. Never dreamed of aviation, never dreaming of Woman Suffrage, bobbed hair, jazz music and the pictures on our billboards of a beautiful woman handing a man a cigarette. Never dreamed of a government spending 12 to 15 billion dollars a year trying to check a crime wave and twice that amount being spent as a dole.

The next farm up the river was RUFFIN from Mississippi, I think he had a few slaves. He was considered at that time a criterion on the culture of cotton. He advocated wide rows on rich land, a little crowded in the drill with shallow cultivation. We dirt farmers of today in trying to produce a 100 per cent yield know with all of our county agents and research work that we have never gotten very far from that rule.

During the Civil War the division of a Northern army passed over this farm, stripping it of everything, destroying great quantities of baled cotton, hauling a lot of it along their line of march for bedding. This broke RUFFIN up and the farm was transferred after the war to CARTER McCLAIN of Kentucky and was known afterwards as the McCLAIN farm.

The next farms were MATT HARDINGS's. I think they were from Mississippi. Two grand old Southerners. They like to get jokes on their neighbors. You know those old timers had to make their own fun. Its now canned up for us in our theatres.

The next were the SHACKELFORDS, the BELLS, the HARRIS's, the ANDERSONS and the CLOUDS from Kentucky with their fine horses and fox hounds. A mile further up was the village of Okolona where old time southern hospitality reigned supreme. Surrounded by the most friendly progressive God-fearing people I have ever known. There were the CARGILSES, the GARRETTs, the ETHRIDGES, the BLANTONS, the TILLMANS, the ROSSES, the EASTS, the YOUNGS, the RANDALLS, the HILLS, the RICES, the PETTISES, the OSBORNS, the MCGILLS, the PARKS, the WEIRS, the KILLINGSWORTHS, the SHACKELFORDS and the CLOUDS.

Down east a few miles was old man THOMAS CLARK from Louisiana and old man JIMMY WINGFIELD. Two more grand old men. I have never heard of any law breakers or gangsters among their descendants, but when better men are made than these old timers, God will make them.

Yours very truly,
JOHN M. COMPTON

OKOLONA BOARD OF TRADE PICNIC TO BE FRIDAY, SEPT. 18TH.

When are we going to have a Board of Trade picnic? That has been the question all summer. Well, it's here. There's gonna be one. We got invited and in a big way. Are we glad? You tell 'em.

A big friendly invitation came from the business men of Okolona last Saturday in the form of a big petition signed by all of them as is evidenced below.

Well does Gurdon remember the good time, eats and program that Okolona put on last year at the good will picnic. They have a way of making one feel welcome too. Well, we even feel that we will have a still better time this year, if that is possible.

This, perhaps, will be the only good will picnic that the Board will participate in due to the lateness of the year.

The Board of Trade believes in these picnics and asked that the business houses of Gurdon close for the occasion which they agreed to do 100 per cent, so that the entire force can attend and be there on time.

Committees have been appointed and ticket teams have done a great job of selling tickets. Your ticket gives you admittance to a free-for-all to the big picnic supper and program to follow. The committee in charge of Gurdon's end of the arrangements and program is CHASE STEPHENS, BUD MORRIS and LOUIS CABE.

The Okolona T.P.A. will serve the supper and attend to Okolona's end of the arrangements. The committee is Mrs. J.M. GRIER, president of P.T.A., Mrs. CECIL OSBORNE, Mrs. ARCH MCGILL, Mrs. L.O. BAKER, and Mrs. ED HILL.

The Board will take the orchestra along.

Stores close at 4:00; Meet at Legion Hut 4:15; Leave Hut at 4:30; Arrive in Okolona 5:15; Picnic supper, 5:45; Program, 6:30.

If you haven't a ticket, get one from any member of the ticket teams or at the Clark County Bank. Tickets will be taken up at the picnic grounds, which is the school grounds. Those invited are the Board of Trade, their families and friends, in fact any one buying a ticket. The price is 35c per person.

Fun, good eats. Big time program. Don't miss this. Times 9-17-1935
